The background is a solid black field. Overlaid on this are several large, white, angular, geometric shapes that resemble stylized chevrons or folded paper. These shapes are arranged in a vertical sequence, creating a sense of depth and movement. The text 'CHOO CHOO 1968' is printed in a bold, white, sans-serif font across the middle of the composition, positioned within one of the white angular shapes.

Edgar Allen Poe

The annual staff appreciates the works of Edgar Allen Poe which we used as the theme for this yearbook. Throughout this book you will find lines from some of his most famous poems such as the "Raven."

Edgar Allen Poe was orphaned at an early age and adopted by John Allen at Richmond, Va., whose name he added to his own.

Among the great masters of the short story, Edgar Allen Poe retains his prominence after more than a century.

Poe is at the same time the father of another major branch of modern fiction: the detective story.

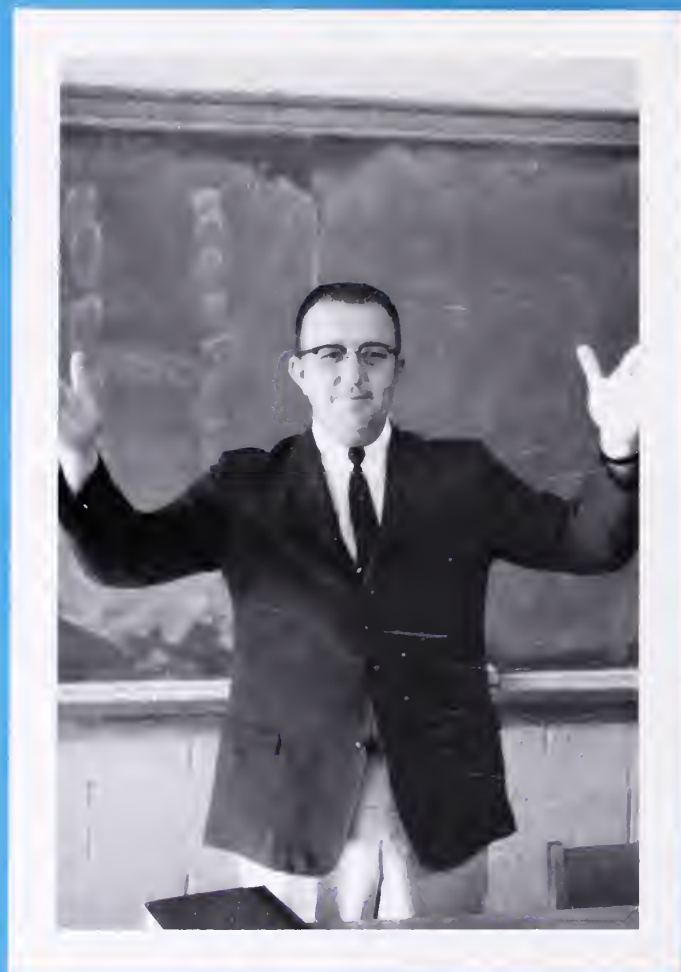

Dedication

Fisherman, C.B. Radio operator and teacher describe the man the 1967-68 Choo Choo is dedicated to.

For his unselfish and loyal service, for his genuine personal interest in students and faculty, for his friendly understanding inside and outside the classroom, for his sincere dedication to his profession, we, the staff, dedicate this book to our beloved teacher--

Donald E. Morgan

Mr. Morgan tells about the "big one" he caught.

FACULTY

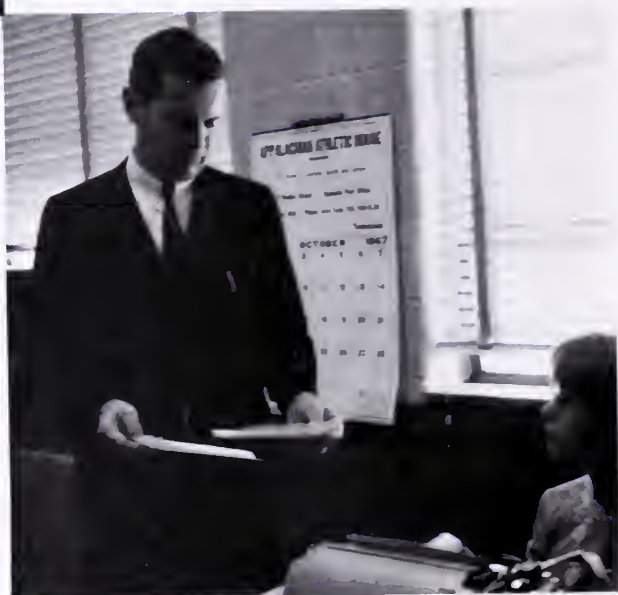

Hard at work is R. B. Worthy's principal, Mr. Robert McCoy.

*Endless

Fame*

A principal's job is never done.

Mrs. Elaine Mullens, the school secretary, is shown performing one of her many duties.

The student body of R.B. Worthy feel that we couldn't have had better leadership this year under the strong influence of Mr. McCoy and a well-rounded Faculty. For this we are in debt to them for a successful school year.

Junior Class

The Jr. Sponsors--Mr. & Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Fawley & Mrs. Loupe

Have you ever been to a "Hillbilly Weddin?" The Junior Class gave you a chance this year. Their play which was titled "Hillbilly Weddin" proved to be a great success.

This was a very active year for the Juniors. Their hard work for homecoming served its purpose in bringing them second place for their float. The title was "In the Valley of the Jolly Shaker Giant." Also, the Juniors worked hard on the plans for the Junior-Senior Prom. This was truly a class to be proud of.

SPORTS

The Golf Team, although young and inexperienced, fought hard to place fourth in District Six. They played more experienced teams such as Marion, Abingdon, John Battle, and Patrick Henry. The four active members of the team were: Tommy Woodward, Bill Woodward, Joe Maiden, and Charles Slate. The Golf Team did their part to uphold the Shaker spirit.

Golf team consists of Bill Woodward, Joe Maiden, Charles Slate, and Tommy Woodward.

Golf coach: Mr. Bob McCoy.

Worthy Wrestling Team

"Success" was the word for the 67-68 Shaker Wrestling Team. With vigorous exercise and plenty of practice the Shakers proved to be too much for their opponents. Because of their determination and their experience gained over the years, this year's team was the best Worthy has ever had.

Track

Shakers relax before a difficult track meet.

Mike Rolen exerts his track ability for a Shaker victory.

This season's track team put forth a lot of hard work and came out fourth in county and third in district. Even though the team didn't score as high as they attempted to, they still served the school with high spirits.

R. B. Worthy Shaker Band

Worthy Band

The R. B. Worthy "Shaker" Band really proved that they were a very very active part of Worthy. Early in the summer, band members started practice for the many field shows, pep rallys, and concerts that they must gave before the year was through.

Band Director: Mr. Bill Cook

In October, the band participated in the Southeastern Band Festival where they received a Superior Division I. Morale was high as they entered concert season, again to take honors at the District Festival. Through all their performances, the band proudly displayed their new uniforms.

The band proved again that Worthy is made up of excellent muscians, fine students, and hard workers.

Choo-Choo

The bell had rung for the students to go home. The halls were silent and the rooms were empty except for the hardworking members of the staff who have devoted their leisure time to work to produce this yearbook of the happenings at Worthy High.

Work on the Choo Choo began last spring when the staff was organized. Ads were sold during the summer to merchants in and out of our community. The school year began, and the hard work began too!

Now the annual is completed--and the staff presents the best annual ever to the patient students at R.B.Worthy High.

RIGHT--Annual staff members working after school.

Completing the Saltshaker are: Margaret Goettman, Kathy Puckett, Debbi Comer, Jane Marshall, and Retta McNew.

Typing for the Saltshaker are: (in front) Carol Poston, Joyce Hayzlette, and Carol Cumbo. (Behind) Norma Woodward, Connie McCready, Vickie Dow, Tabby Henderson, Debbie Asbury, Nellie Grand, Linda Surber, and Dolly Smith.

The Saltshaker Staff struggled through many long and hard hours in order to give the R.B. Worthy students a school paper of which they would be proud. The Staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Fawley, is to be congratulated for a job well done.

Saltshaker Staff

The officers discuss the layout for the next Saltshaker with their advisor. The officers are: Curtis Surber, Sports Writer; Roger Harris, Sports Writer; Billie Mitchell, Editor; Patsy Dinsmore, Co-Editor; Mrs. Fawley, Advisor; Susan Hynes, Advertising; and Phil Sword, Sports Writer.

Talking about Picasso, being able to draw anything, well this year the members of the Art Club can do anything Picasso did and more.

Some of the projects the Art Club did this year were helping teachers fix bulletin boards, painting pictures to be put in town and at the hospital, and also serving the school through art.

This year the Art Club also plans to set up a dark room for photography.

Officers are; Faye Collins--Sec., Mr. Farris: Sponser, Roger Davidson: Pres., Charler Borders: Treas., Tommy Woodward: S.C.A. Representative, Earnest Greer: Vice-Pres.

Old Members: Mac Walls, Tommy Woodward, and Curtis Surber show new members: Pat Comer, Greg Harris, Roger Davidson, Johnny Stidham, Paul Saffold, Daryl Taylor and Pat Arnold, the trick of folding the flag.

Key Club '67-'68

The Key Club has enjoyed one of its most successful years this year. It presented a highly successful assembly entitled the "GRAND OLE OPERY", a take-off on country western music.

Though smaller in number than last year's club, this year's club has had many successful projects and has enjoyed a highly successful year.

Key Club members are shown replacing stage lighting and cleaning. This is one of their many, helpful, service projects.

Beta Club

One of the first events anxiously awaited by all Seniors is the day their rings arrive. To the Seniors it seemed that the rings would never arrive, but by the first of October, they were being proudly displayed. With these rings the Seniors finally began to realize their status in school, their maturity, and their accomplishments. Their Senior ring is the one object which will continue to link a graduate with the memories of the happiest year of his life.
